Description

Italian Painted and Carved Console Table - Faux Marble Top - 19th Century. This elegant period console table, richly carved and polychromed, is of Italian origin. It rests on a scrolled base joined by a turned central stretcher and features a painted decoration of flowers, foliage, and rocaille ornaments in soft, harmonious tones. The molded faux marble top perfectly follows the contoured shape of the piece, adding a touch of nobility and refinement. The whole piece offers a striking decorative presence, ideal for an entryway, living room, or reception area. This console table is captivating for the delicacy of its carvings, the quality of its polychromy, and the elegance of its proportions. Period: 19th century. Origin: Italy. Materials: Carved and painted wood. Style: Rococo, Louis XV. Condition: Good
