

Rare Portrait Of Ferdinand Berthoud, Famous King Louis XVI Watchmaker

8 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Length :

Width : 73 cm (cadre) - 55 cm (chassis)

Height : 93 cm (cadre) - 65 cm (chassis)

Description

Ferdinand Berthoud (1727-1807), admitted as a master watchmaker in Paris in 1753, official watchmaker to King Louis XVI. Oil on canvas, oval format. French School, second half of the 18th century. Rare portrait of Ferdinand Berthoud, the celebrated King Louis XVI watchmaker. Shown in three-quarter view, wearing formal attire, a lace jabot cravat, and a curly ponytail wig. Very good condition.

Dealer

La Galerie du Sauternais

French Antiquities

Tel : 06 89 57 32 19

10 B rue de la Tour de Mercadet

Barsac 33720