Description

An elegant, flowing headboard, crafted from wood and richly painted in a Rococo style inspired by antique designs. This piece is distinguished by: - a highly ornate, hand-carved and painted decoration featuring scrolls and acanthus leaves, all surmounted by a stylized shell; - a central cartouche in the shape of a crown, painted in burgundy and gold tones; - a beautiful patina that lends it considerable charm. Ideal for a character bedroom, a private mansion, a country house, or a classic or eclectic decorating project. It can also be repurposed as a decorative wall element. A striking piece, rare in its size and the quality of its decoration.
