

Patinated Bronze And Gilt Bronze Clockset, 19th Century

2 400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

A patinated bronze and finely chased gilt bronze mantel clock set, resting on white marble bases. The central clock is adorned with a finely sculpted winged putto, depicted in a dynamic and graceful pose, holding a symbolic torch. The movement is housed in a white marble case richly decorated with gilt bronze elements featuring floral and foliate motifs. The enamel dial is signed "J. Camelin - Paris". The two matching candelabra, each with two candle arms, are supported by patinated bronze putti figures, enhanced with gilt bronze.
