Description

A plow at 1/10th or 1/20th scale... I can't quite tell with such a large piece! Wrought iron and carved wood... From the 1900s... A masterful piece... From the end of school or an apprenticeship... Certainly from the southwest... In good overall condition... Perhaps some parts are missing...? Lost or not made... It's always difficult to be an expert in everything...! Perhaps someone more knowledgeable than me can teach me something...! Some parts are riveted... And a few parts are designed to move a little...! Note that it's a unique piece...! Weight... 1 kg 131 g
