Description

We present a rare and captivating set of three table lamps made from authentic Balinese theater masks, hand-carved in wood and dating back to the early 19th century. A piece of great historical and aesthetic value, perfectly combining ethnic art, spirituality, and decorative design in a unique and striking balance. The three masks represent the fundamental expressions of Balinese theater: love, severity, and kindness. Each face is carved with extraordinary skill, featuring intense and deeply expressive features, enhanced with glass details that add brightness and theatrical impact. The masks were later expertly transformed into lamps, preserving their original charm. The lamps feature sturdy wooden bases with elegant bronze supports, emphasizing the ensemble and ensuring stability. The shades, made of fine green silk
