

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Richard Ginori Porcelain Dinner Service, 1927

1 600 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Timeless elegance for a prestigious table This exceptional Richard Ginori dinner service from 1927 represents one of the finest expressions of early 20th-century Italian porcelain craftsmanship. Designed for 12 people, it includes a complete and refined set: 24 dinner plates, 12 soup plates, 12 dessert plates, one tureen, two stands, three oval serving dishes, one salad bowl, and one large round serving platter. Each piece reflects the stylistic excellence and superior quality that made Richard Ginori an iconic name worldwide. The white decoration with an elegant gold rim adds brightness and understated sophistication, making this service perfect for formal occasions as well as distinguished everyday use. Moreover, the harmonious balance between classic design and

Dealer

Bruno Bernardi Gallery

Antiquities

Mobile : 00393482430869

Vicolo del Voltone n.11

Rimini 47921

decorative elegance allows it to fit seamlessly into both traditional and contemporary interiors. The service is in excellent condition, a key aspect for collectors and enthusiasts. Choosing a vintage Richard Ginori service means investing in history, craftsmanship, and lasting value. Therefore, this set is not merely tableware, but a true decorative heritage. Worldwide shipping via FedEx - UPS - DHL with professional packaging and insurance. European shipping available upon agreement. Payment by bank transfer, Visa, Mastercard.