Description

We present a work of exceptional historical and artistic value: Saint Sebastian, oil on canvas later mounted on a wooden panel, dating to the late 16th century and attributable to the Roman area. A masterpiece that combines spirituality, refined pictorial technique, and strong emotional intensity, ideal for collectors, lovers of sacred art, and quality-focused investors. The detail that makes this artwork truly unique is the expression of ecstasy on the Saint's face, rendered with remarkable sensitivity and deep psychological insight, immediately engaging the viewer. The finely executed drapery features colors typical of the Jewish religious tradition, a rare and highly interesting iconographic element. The frame is original and contemporary to the artwork, further confirming its authenticity and aesthetic
