Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Philippe Rousseau (1816-1887) French painter, specializing in animal and still life subjects. Very rare painting, oil on canvas, circa 1850. Still life, framed Christ, with a wreath and a small pouch of rose petals. A beautifully executed subject, in need of cleaning. Note a small tear above Christ's head (patch on the back). The painting is rather dark; light cleaning is recommended. Dimensions of the canvas: 54 x 65 cm (15F). Signed lower right. A rare opportunity.
