Description

Ecce Homo, turn of the 16th/17th century. This is a frontal and direct depiction of Christ wearing a crown of thorns, his hands bound. The delicacy of the brushwork is reminiscent of Flemish painting. The figure, brightly lit, stands out against the dark background, accentuating the emotional power of the work. Highly decorative. Technique: oil on panel. Condition: very good, well preserved. Signature: unidentified. Dimensions: panel 50 cm x 65 cm, with frame approximately 54 cm x 79 cm. Provenance: Europe, Italy. The gallery provides a certificate of authenticity for each work.
