PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Senior Officer's Sword - France, First Empire

430 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Senior officer's sword - France, First Empire. Asymmetrical gilt bronze hilt adorned with a trophy of arms. Checkered ebony grip. Pommel slightly inclined forward, decorated at the base with a winged thunderbolt from which four lightning bolts emanate. Guard branch decorated with foliage and a lion's mask. Single-edged Solingen blade with fullers. The ferrule on the grip above the hilt is broken (see photo). The mount has some play, but the sword is otherwise sound. Weight 482g. Length 92cm. Blade length 79cm.

Dealer

Galerie Mathieu

Antiquités, armes et art extra-Européens

Châteauneuf-sur-Charente 16120