Description

Art Nouveau Table - Nancy School. Elegant Art Nouveau table, Nancy School, made at the end of the 19th century. This table features a beautifully inlaid, undulating top with a floral motif, typical of the naturalist style developed by Nancy artists and cabinetmakers. The finely executed decoration highlights stylized flowers and foliage, rendered with a keen sense of design and wood tones, characteristic of the Art Nouveau aesthetic. The openwork apron and cabriole legs enhance the elegance and lightness of the piece, in a decidedly decorative and organic style.
