Description

20th century. Oil on panel. This painting depicts a peaceful village landscape crossed by a stream. In the foreground, a shallow river flows between large pebbles in warm ochre, gray, and brown hues, contrasting with the fresh greens of the riverside vegetation. On the opposite bank, several houses with light-colored walls and red-tiled roofs stand in a row. Their simple, slightly blurred forms suggest an old-fashioned architecture, typical of a rural village. In the background, the landscape opens onto rolling hills, creating a gentle sense of depth. The clear sky, with its bluish hues and light clouds, bathes the scene in a tranquil light, likely that of a morning or early afternoon. The painting as a whole exudes an impression of serenity and simplicity. Dimensions: 55 × 48 cm
