Description

Chinese-made lapis lazuli Buddha from around 1960 resting on an oval base made of exotic wood inlaid with silver filigree (some missing). The seated Buddha mainly symbolizes meditation, inner peace, and spiritual awakening, and serenity is clearly evident in this sculpture. According to Taoist beliefs, the Buddha statue attracts positive energies and placing it at the entrance will ensure that negative energies do not enter the home. In good condition. China, 1960.
