Description

Rare Louis XVI style console table from the early 20th century. The apron is adorned with porcelain medallions surrounded by bronze mounts with crossed ribbons. A large bronze cherub is located in the center of the apron. The four fluted legs are connected by a stretcher decorated in the center with a bronze top. The top is made of veined gray-yellow marble. We also have a pair of side tables of the same model available for EUR1100 per pair (see photo). Delivery or shipping is possible; please contact us.
