Description

A couple sits at a table on a bistro terrace; she smiles as she hands a beer to the fisherman. He has placed his rod and landing net on the table and presents her with his catch on a plate. He is wearing a blue tracksuit with "France" written on it; he is the footballer Max Fulgenzy, a great player for CS Sedan Ardennes who won two French Cups (in 1956 and 1961). The sign is a sign for a beer from the East, from the famous Grande Brasserie Ardennaise brewery and its Sedan beer. It is a metal sign with a hanging ring on the back. Height 34 cm - width 24 cm. Very good condition, circa 1960.
