Description

Louis XVI period trumeau mirror, 18th century. A very pretty trumeau in an elegant seafoam green, enhanced by carved and gilded wooden moldings, in excellent original condition. A very pleasing original scene depicting a quality house near a bridge. Beautiful contrast and pictorial quality for this period piece, which is rarely the case for a decorative item. Note its size, 138 cm high, making it very suitable for any type of interior. Beautiful carved wooden sculpture in the central section. Period mirror with original silvering, 60 x 45 cm, with a few minor pits. A very decorative piece that will make a magnificent statement in a beautiful interior. Shipping available in France and worldwide via professional and specialized carrier. Invoice and certificate provided. Collection possible at Mas
