Description

Precious box representing a small chest, decorated with brass elements in the form of rivets and ornately shaped cover plates. KEMN monogram on ivory insertion. Nut root wood. Brass. Ivory. Portable Writing Boxes with Forged Elements Portable writing boxes, often decorated with wrought iron elements, represent a fascinating marriage of functionality, craftsmanship and artistry. Historically, these compact boxes were designed for travel, serving as both a portable desk and a secure storage facility for writing implements, paper and correspondence. The forged elements, both decorative and structural, not only enhanced their durability, but also elevated them to the status of objects of prestige and refinement.
