Description

Pair of Cloisonné Bronze Vases with Phoenix Decoration - Asia, Late 19th Century. A very elegant pair of bronze vases richly decorated with polychrome cloisonné enamels, adorned with majestic phoenixes and stylized floral scrolls. The side handles are finely sculpted in the form of mythological creatures, adding a beautiful decorative presence to the whole. The decoration, particularly detailed, blends blue, green, ochre, and gold tones on a dark background, typical of late 19th-century Asian production. The set presents a beautiful balance of proportions and excellent quality of execution. Characteristics:
