Description

Large Art Deco oak extendable table, likely by Charles Dudouigt (1885-1946), a renowned designer of the 1930s. The table rests on two bases joined by a wrought iron stretcher. These bases are decorated with arabesque carvings and lion heads against a red-tinted background. It features two retractable extensions, providing a total length of 3.10m. There is a very small chip on one corner (barely noticeable). Dimensions: 2.10m x 1.05m x 0.76m high. Each extension: 0.50m. Delivery upon request.
