Description

This iconic piece of Southern European cabinetmaking perfectly embodies the late Baroque style applied to prestigious furniture. The cabinet is distinguished by its central niche, adorned with an antique-style bronze sculpture--in this case, a vase of lilies. The drawers, decorated with gilt-bronze medallions and inlays, feature a sumptuous tortoiseshell veneer, typical of Sicily. These luxury items, testaments to the opulence of the courts of Naples, Sicily, and the Iberian Peninsula, are presented as a complete set, with the desk accompanied by its original top. Please note that if the buyer also wishes to acquire the base, it will be shipped separately for safety reasons, resulting in increased shipping costs. Provenance: Private collection, Madrid. Dimensions: Cabinet (92 x 31
