Description

A terracotta bas-relief depicting the Samaritan woman at the well, a biblical scene inspired by the Gospel of John. This work is attributed to François Lucas (Toulouse, 1736-1813), a Toulouse sculptor active at the end of the 18th century, known for his religious compositions imbued with gentleness and sensitivity. The scene presents Christ and the Samaritan woman at the well, rendered with a fine sense of relief, ample drapery, and expressive modeling of the figures.
