Description

A charming scene of an evening in Montmartre during the 1940s or 50s, depicting various couples leaving a cabaret. The streetlights beautifully highlight the figures and period vehicles, including Citroën Traction Avants, against the backdrop of the Sacré-Coeur Basilica. A glimpse of Paris in its heyday! The painting is by Robert Bussy, a painter active in France, particularly in Paris, during the second half of the 20th century. Oil on canvas in good condition, with slight soiling. Dimensions: 41 x 33 cm (standard 6F). Shipping available within France and internationally.
