Description

An elegant carved wooden living room set dating from the late 19th to early 20th century, attributable to the Art Nouveau movement, exhibiting strong Symbolist and Neo-Gothic influences. The tripartite backrest is finely openwork and adorned with stylized motifs in sinuous lines, evoking a vegetal and fantastical decor characteristic of the 1900 aesthetic. The side supports, surmounted by winged forms, lend the piece a rare architectural and theatrical presence. The structure rests on an openwork base punctuated by arches and carved elements, highlighting the decorative sophistication of Art Nouveau. The frame is in perfect condition; the upholstery requires restoration (stuffing and fabric). All restoration work can be carried out by our workshops. Sofa width: 160 cm; Armchair
