Description

An elegant and relatively rare pair of double coat hooks from the Art Nouveau period, in the style of Thonet or Kohn productions. Each piece consists of a bent tubular metal structure, adorned with decorative elements in bent wood (beech) with a warm patina. This model is distinguished by its meticulous finish and its pretty geometric brass finials in the shape of flowers (or four-leaf clovers). Upper part: Wide hook surmounted by a turned wooden olive. Lower part: Half-moon hook with solid brass finials worked in the shape of fleur-de-lis or gadrooned cabochons. Fixing: Original metal mounting plates with four anchor points, ensuring perfect stability. Beautiful condition with a superb patina of use. The wood is sound, the brass is bright. Ideal for an authentic entryway or chic Parisian bistro-style décor o
