Description

DescriptionThis impressionist oil on canvas depicts Plaça Reial in Barcelona, focused on the central fountain and the surrounding arcaded façades. The scene is constructed with loose, confident brushwork that emphasizes light, tonal balance, and overall atmosphere rather than architectural precision. A restrained palette of muted greens, warm ochres, grey-blues, and soft earth tones creates depth and visual cohesion across the composition. Light is evenly diffused, with subtle reflections in the fountain anchoring the foreground. Figures are lightly indicated to provide scale and a sense of everyday urban activity without narrative emphasis. The painterly surface and softened forms align the work with mid-20th-century European impressionist-influenced cityscapes, where mood,
