Description

A very beautiful and original Afghan doormat. This type of decorative object was proudly hung above the entrance of nomadic tents. Their motifs, representing a clan or group, indicated the ethnic origin of the inhabitants. Woven and knotted wool upon wool in the traditional way. Approximately one centimeter thick velvet. Very high-quality wool that gives the natural hues their full brilliance and depth. The indigo blue is stunning and seems to flow across the surface like the ocean depths. Extremely soft and silky wool. Suitable for the floor, as a wall hanging, or as a bedside rug. An original, antique, and highly decorative object. Mid-20th century. Perfect condition. Dimensions: 104 x 57 cm. Laurent
