Description

A finely chased and decorative Empire-style mantel clock, crafted in gilt and silvered bronze, dating from the early 19th century. The design depicts a lady of the period playing with her dog, holding an oak branch with acorns in the background - symbolizing strength and longevity. A charming and allegorical scene, typical of the French Empire aesthetic, with finely molded details and a refined patina. The clock is sold with its original key and pendulum and is in very good working order. Dimensions: Height: 46 cm Width: 31 cm Depth: 11 cm Condition: Very good condition. Minor signs of wear consistent with age. Fully functional, with its key and pendulum.
