Description

A lovely pair of small Pompadour-style fireplaces, crafted in the late 19th century from white Carrara marble. They are in good original condition and are currently undergoing restoration, including stripping and cleaning, in our workshops. For more information, please do not hesitate to contact us. This antique Pompadour fireplace features a flat design, sculpted in the center of its frieze with a medallion, and classic jambs. A modern, ceramic-style aluminum interior and a three-panel curtain can be provided as an optional extra. A custom-made fireback in plain marble or marble cabochons can be created, subject to marble availability. Price: EUR2600 each.
