Description

Georges Van der Straeten (1856-1928) Elegant Seated Woman - Art Nouveau Bronze. This charming bronze sculpture with a nuanced brown patina depicts an elegant young woman seated. It is the work of the Belgian sculptor Georges Van der Straeten, a renowned figure of Art Nouveau. The modeling is refined and expressive, with a delicately inclined face and flowing drapery typical of the artist. The piece rests on a marble base with a stone bench top, creating a highly decorative contrast of materials. A Napoleonic stamp (crowned N) attests to its quality as an early cast. The signature is visible.
