Description

"Oil On Canvas Saint Sebastian, 17th Century - Attributed To Andrea Vaccaro" We offer a work of extraordinary charm and historical value: Saint Sebastian, a 17th-century oil on canvas attributed to the circle of Andrea Vaccaro, one of the leading masters of Neapolitan Baroque painting. The painting depicts the saint bound to a tree, pierced by arrows, set against a twilight background that enhances the dramatic intensity of the scene and the refined use of light typical of the Caravaggesque tradition. The high pictorial quality is evident in the anatomical modeling, the expressive intensity of the face, and the masterful handling of chiaroscuro, all elements that give the work a powerful visual and emotional impact. Its important dimensions - frame h.127 x W.98 cm, painting h.111 x W.82 cm - make it an ideal
