Description

"17th-century Oil On Canvas - Saint Sebastian, Attributed To Cesare Gennari (1637-1688)"

17th-Century Oil on Canvas - Saint Sebastian, attributed to Cesare Gennari (1637-1688) This magnificent 17th-century oil on canvas, depicting Saint Sebastian and attributed to Cesare Gennari, is a work of rare emotional intensity and remarkable painterly quality. The refined anatomical rendering, the subtle shading, and the deep spiritual presence are typical of the Bolognese school of the period. A true masterpiece for collectors and admirers of Old Master paintings. Brief note on the artist Cesare Gennari (1637-1688), nephew of the renowned Guercino, was one of the most sensitive interpreters of the 17th-century Emilian tradition. His work is appreciated for its masterful use of
