

Oil On Canvas Saint Sebastian, Early 18th Century

4 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 90

Height : 140

Description

"Oil On Canvas Saint Sebastian, Early 18th Century" We are pleased to present this refined early 18th-century oil on canvas painting, attributed to a follower of Andrea del Sarto, an outstanding example of the great Italian artistic tradition. The work depicts Saint Sebastian, clearly identifiable by the arrows and the palm of martyrdom, symbols of faith, strength, and sacrifice. The quality of execution is marked by extraordinary expressive intensity: the rendering of the flesh tones, achieved through a masterful use of light, conveys strong emotional depth. The careful details, such as the finely painted halo and the elegant drapery, reveal a skilled hand and a deep knowledge of Florentine Renaissance painting, reinterpreted with an 18th-century sensibility. The harmonious composition and

Dealer

Bruno Bernardi Gallery

Antiquities

Mobile : 00393482430869

Vicolo del Voltone n.11

Rimini 47921

expressive face make this painting a work of exceptional beauty and strong collector's appeal. The painting measures 90 x 68 cm and is housed in a period carved and gilded wooden frame, not contemporary, with overall dimensions of 140 x 90 cm, enhancing its visual presence. An ideal acquisition for collectors, antique dealers, and lovers of high-quality sacred art, capable of enriching any interior with elegance and historical value. We ship worldwide via FedEx-UPS-DHL with professional packing and insurance. Shipping throughout Europe upon agreement. Payment by bank transfer, Visa, Mastercard.