Description

Oil on canvas. In this magnificent oil on canvas of impressive dimensions, the Barcelona-based painter Emili Valentines depicts the moment when, after a long day's work, he turns off the last lights in his studio. The sofa, which likely once sheltered a model, lies motionless on the floor. Only a desk lamp illuminates the room, reflecting a mirror, in the manner of Las Meninas. The artist's cat bids him farewell from the far end of the room, which it will soon be responsible for guarding at night. This pictorial reflection is only possible from the perspective of the solitary inhabitant of the studio, who paints this picture as a confession of his moments of solitude, his creative blocks, and his profound artistic experiences within the almost monastic space of his studio. Image dimensions without frame: 120
