Description

"Saint Sebastian Engraving, 1911 - Odilon Redon" This exceptional engraving of Saint Sebastian, created in 1911 by Odilon Redon, is a work of significant artistic and cultural value, ideal for collectors and admirers of Symbolist art. Redon devoted several works to the subject of Saint Sebastian between 1910 and 1912, a period of full artistic maturity in which his research moved toward a deeply spiritual and visionary dimension.Far removed from the anatomical and realistic representations of the Renaissance, Redon portrays the martyred saint in an enigmatic and mystical manner, focusing on inner life and the supernatural. The elongated figures, dreamlike atmospheres, and strong emotional intensity are hallmarks of his Symbolist style, aimed--according to the artist
