Description

A charming piece of furniture that serves as both a writing desk and a display cabinet. Made of solid mahogany and mahogany veneer, this elegant piece can be placed in a living room or entryway. It comprises a writing table with a sliding top and two drawers, and an upper section that can be used as a display cabinet or bookcase. The upper section features an openwork pediment. The piece is in very good condition, with some minor scratches to the veneer and a stained leather top. Louis Philippe period, circa 1840. Delivery by carrier in a wooden crate on a pallet: EUR300 within France, EUR600 within the EU, and EUR1500 for the rest of the world.
