Description

There are objects capable of transforming a room by telling centuries of history and artisanal nobility. This rare three-drawer small cabinet, an authentic expression of the 18th-century Bolognese style, is one of these treasures. Crafted with stunning national blond walnut veneering (lastronatura), the piece embodies the refined taste and structural solidity typical of the finest 18th-century cabinet-making from Bologna.Its proportions are perfect for both modern and antique settings: measuring 87 cm in height, 56 cm in width, and 38 cm in depth, it is ideal as an elegant accent piece for a prestigious entrance, living room, or bedroom. What makes this particular specimen truly precious is its state of conservation: it is in good overall condition and, most importantly, in its original patina. This
