Description

Max SAVY "Elsewhere" Oil on canvas, signed lower right. The light, the landscape, the unique figures, and the peasant life of the period are magnificently rendered in this painting by Max Savy, where his distinctive touch and attention to detail are fully recognizable. Dimensions without frame: 58.5 x 71 cm. Perfect condition. Exchange or buyback of your artworks is possible. Max Savy, born April 11, 1918, in Albi and died October 30, 2010, in Narbonne, was a French painter and illustrator. His favorite subjects were rural life and the Languedoc landscapes bathed in light. A schoolteacher and drawing professor at the École Normale, generations of Carcassonne residents first knew him as a teacher, before he achieved international renown, particularly in the United States.
