Description

An elegant oil painting on canvas depicting the Belém Tower in Lisbon. This painting is by Théophile Jaouen, a late 19th-century painter known for his seascapes. In the foreground, we see the beach where beached boats rest, and in the background, a pontoon where other ships are moored. Against a backdrop of hills, the Belém Tower of Lisbon is clearly visible. The work is very colorful and luminous, portraying local life of the time. This high-quality painting is in good condition, with the exception of an old restoration in the sky. Signed in the lower right corner and in its original giltwood frame.
