Description

Set of 7 Louis XVI armchairs in walnut wood, of Italian production dating from the late 18th to the early 19th century.

They are characterized by a rectangular backrest, cane seat and back, shaped armrests, and turned, tapered legs, typical of the Neoclassical style.

In good condition, with patina and signs of age consistent with their period; the caning is generally well preserved, though conservative restoration is recommended.

An elegant set of furniture, ideal for period interiors or collections of Neoclassical furniture.
