Description

In the world of fine antiques, few works possess the dramatic impact of this carved wooden mirror, an authentic masterpiece of 19th-century Bolognese craftsmanship. With its grand dimensions (h.160 x w.110 cm), this piece is not merely a decorative item, but a true architecture of light capable of commanding an entire room. The frame, covered in pure gold, is a triumph of symbolism and artisanal skill: grotesque motifs blend with lateral floral festoons, culminating in the enigmatic charm of a satyr's face, a hallmark of sophisticated and cultured taste. The presence of the original mirror glass adds inestimable value, offering that deep, slightly amber reflection that only age can bestow. While it shows some small areas of detachment that are easily restorable, this work
