Description

Delightful pair of miniature chairs in the Lorraine style, made of solid walnut. The chairs feature a high open backrest and turned, joined front legs. The two chairs were made by the renowned Parisian manufacturer Frédéric Massin, as evidenced by the plaque, which also bears the inscription "6, Fauburg St-Honoré." These chairs, perhaps used as dolls' chairs, are a fascinating object and a curious addition to your home. French manufacture, late 19th-early 20th century.Dimensions: H x W x D 55 x 25 x 20cm
