Pair Of French Figurative Candlesticks In Gilt Bronze, 19th Century

1 149 EUR

Period : 19th century
Condition : Très bon état
Material : Gilt bronze
Height : 24 cm

Description

A fine pair of French 19th-century gilt and bronze figural candlesticks, each of a nude woman, possibly Omphale, Queen of Lydia and lover of Hercules, draped in a lion skin, supporting gilt bronze cup sconces over sprays of petals or leaves. The figures mounted on a gilt bronze ring of acanthus leaves on a white marble base. 24 cm (9.5 in) highCondition: Very good. No damage and light wear. One with a slight lean from the verticalShipping/Import: Free to most destinations. EU customers, PLEASE NOTE: Our price for this item includes all shipping and import costs (customs duty, clearance fees, and VAT). For other destinations, please inquire.

Dealer

Lefays
Fine, affordable, art and antiques with excellent customer service
Mobile : +44 7772174440

Hare Lane,
Chard TA20