Description

A solid oak planter resting on six small feet formed and cut from the plinth, all topped with a molding. The four sides of the planter are crafted with carved panels, each featuring two circles adorned with a stylized daisy motif. The border is entirely carved with a Renaissance pattern of semicircles. This planter is sold without an inner zinc liner. This charming piece is a fine example of late 19th-century craftsmanship in the Henri II style. External dimensions: length to plinth 55 cm, width to plinth 32 cm, total height 28 cm. Internal dimensions: height 22 cm / width 20 cm / length 43 cm. Please contact us for shipping costs.
