Description

This painting, depicting Saint-Paul-de-Vence at dawn, was created in the 20th century in a style reminiscent of Art Nouveau and traditional Provençal landscapes. This oil on cardboard captivates with its generous brushstrokes and vibrant texture. The warm tones of the facades, contrasting with the clear, luminous sky, convey a peaceful and authentic atmosphere of the hilltop village. The composition is balanced, enlivened by the presence of cypress and olive trees, emblematic elements of the South. The signature, visible at the bottom, remains to be deciphered, but the work as a whole demonstrates a fine mastery of painting and a true sense of light. Its size and subject matter make this painting an ideal decorative piece, easily integrated into both classic and contemporary interiors.
