

Early 19th Century Pair Of Landscapes In Oil On Panel

2 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

Splendid pair of Roman school oil paintings depicting rural landscapes. The two elegant paintings depict two scenes from the Roman countryside. One painting features a large oak tree in the center, dominating the landscape covered by a stormy sky. It is surrounded by small figures immersed in bucolic scenes in the countryside. In the other painting, the scene is dominated by a waterfall, while lower down is a genre scene with common women busy with washerwomen or observing two men-at-arms on horseback. The background features a countryside landscape dotted with architecture. The two paintings feature contemporary Florentine frames, hand-carved and gilded, which further enhance the softness of the landscapes and the detail of the figures depicted. Roman school,
