Description

An elegant and rare late 19th/early 20th-century dandy's walking stick. The knob is gold, delicately decorated with a raised floral frieze. It bears an eagle's head hallmark on the base. Gold eyelets, adding a further touch of sophistication. The cane measures 34,25 inches in length. Slender and flexible, this walking stick is an elegant collector's item, representative of the refinement of the late 19th century.
