

Mauriceau Punch, 18th Century

380 EUR

Signature : inconnu

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Description

An uncommon model of an obstetric perforator after Mauriceau, unsigned, but 18th century. This instrument is described in the Encyclopedia as a "Lance for piercing the head of the fetus in the womb." Octagonal ebony handle (two slots) and steel body. The instrument measures 26.5 cm in length.

Dealer

Le Zogrscope

Instruments scientifiques et médicaux anciens

Tel : +33688778366

5 rue de Condé

Paris 75006