Description

Discover this remarkable set of four antique wrought iron chairs, an authentic testament to 19th-century craftsmanship. These folding chairs, designed to combine practicality and durability, are a true invitation to travel back in time. Their wrought iron frame, reinforced by riveted joints, testifies to the solid and meticulous construction typical of the era. Every detail, every curve, every joint reflects the expertise of the artisans of yesteryear, who combined aesthetics and functionality. These chairs are not merely utilitarian objects, but true collector's items, imbued with history and character. One of the chairs has benefited from new welds, a discreet and professional intervention that has restored its full stability. Today, it blends perfectly into the set, without altering its authenticity or original
