Description

An elegant set of two table lamps made in France, featuring a simple yet refined design characteristic of the late 1980s and early 1990s. Each lamp skillfully combines the transparency of a thick glass base, the slenderness of a delicately curved metal arm, and the softness of an oval, opaque glass shade, creating a harmonious balance of materials and lines. Equipped with a two-position switch and a halogen bulb, these lamps diffuse a warm, enveloping light, ideal for a cozy and elegant atmosphere. Displayed as a pair on a chest of drawers or bedside tables, they offer a particularly sophisticated look, while also being usable individually.
